

DelMonaco Winery & Vineyards is where your full wine experience starts. The winery is located in middle Tennessee, a short drive from Nashville, Chattanooga and Knoxville, and only minutes from Cookeville. Guests are invited to enjoy this beautiful facility, experience winery tours and wine tastings, as well as make selections from the wide array of items in the Gift Shop.

When designing the Winery, the DelMonacos' goal was to create a place where guests could be entertained or simply relax in an atmosphere of subtle elegance — beginning with the custom stained floors on the main level and beautiful cherry appointments throughout. Interior and exterior balconies with wrought iron railings leading to the patio overlooking the vineyards and the grand staircase leading to the upper floor contribute to the overall experience. All were designed with an attention to detail that seems to speak to the heart of all visitors.

The winery, which can be viewed from the tasting room on the main level, is housed in the lower level of the building and features a large tank room for fermenting the wines. Twenty stainless steel tanks of various sizes and an assortment of oak barrels are currently in use. This is where the winemaker, Dominic Burke, utilizes his skills to ferment wines specifically for DelMonaco Winery & Vineyards. Dominic, a native of South Africa, has produced award winning wines in New Zealand, France, Austria, Australia and South Africa and now in Tennessee. The bottling, bonding and storage rooms complete the 9000 sq. ft. lower level. Another 9000 sq. ft. complete the first and second floors of the building.

The main entrance to the building opens to the Gift Shop and Tasting Room. Here guests can enjoy FREE tastings of the award-winning wines produced on the property, and purchase unique gifts chosen especially for the wine lover. FREE facility and vineyard tours are also available. After purchasing wine, guests can enjoy it in any of the Bella Rooms or on the back patio overlooking the scenic vineyards.

The Bella Rooms were designed to host an array of special events. The 3500 sq. ft. Bella seats up to 300 people and features a custom designed vineyard motif floor, marble columns, expansive palladium windows, an elegant dual staircase surrounding the stage, and three large glass doors that open out for viewing the vineyards. The Bella is complimented by a ten foot wide interior balcony and a 12 foot wide exterior balcony. A special room, comfortably accommodating, is available for a bride and her entourage or a guest speaker. Access to the caterer's kitchen completes the Bella.

Three other meeting rooms on the second level are also part of the Bella Rooms, and provide users with an atmosphere of tranquility and relaxation. The McNellis Room accommodates up to 80 people comfortably. The Johnson Room seats 50 and is complimented by a Butler's Pantry. The Jackson Room seats up to 25. Each room has its own uniqueness from views of the vineyards to balcony access.

Folks can also take walking tours of the manicured vineyards. Currently, four varieties of grapes are planted. Each has their own unique flavor, aroma, and planting pattern. Within the walking tour, you can stop on the bridge between the two vineyards; relax at the picnic table or in the swing underneath the huge oak tree while enjoying the scenery and serenity — thus encompassing the essence of the full wine experience where, as Barbara said, "It all starts with the VINE".

To enjoy the full wine experience year-round, one can choose from 23 beautiful lots within the Vineyard Estates which are surrounded by lush foliage. The Vineyard Estates wind throughout the active vineyards. Whether you are seeking a luxurious home or a quiet second home away from the city, the Vineyard Estates deserves your close attention. This deed restricted community is spread over 25 acres and offers an extraordinary opportunity for families, individuals or retirees. Here you can experience breathtaking sunrises and sunsets while strolling through the tranquility of the vineyards.

Since opening the facility, many events ranging from weddings, fund raisers, dinner dances, anniversary parties, baby showers and high school reunions and proms have been scheduled. For a complete listing of future events open to the public, visit the winery web site at www.delmonacowinery.com or call 931-858-1177.
